NEW Photography Parties

Do you regularly meet up with a group of friends for playdates and coffee? If so, how about having a photography party?

This is a brand new package and a great way for you to share the cost of having some fantastic photos with friends as well as creating a lovely record of your little one's social life when they were small!

Whether you're a small group meeting in each other's houses (minimum 5 people) or a larger group I will come to your venue and spend between 1 and 2 hours creating beautiful, natural portraits of you and your children.

The cost of the session is just £10 per family and, from this, each family will receive a DVD slideshow of all edited images and one 5x7inch print.
